

10 Minute Conversation Guide

This worksheet and questions should be used to prepare for and guide your performance insight conversations

Questions your manager will ask:	Use this space to capture your talking points before the meeting and for notes
What's Going Well: An accomplishment, problem you solved, goal that was met, etc.
What Might Be Next: Is there a new skill you want to learn, a challenge where some coaching or support would help, etc?
Ask your manager these questions:	Use this space to capture your talking points before the meeting and for notes
What's Going Well: What's one thing that I'm doing well and that I should continue with?
What Might Be Next: What's one thing I could do to be even more effective in my role?
Your manager will ask these questions:	Use this space to capture your talking points before the meeting and for notes
What's Working: What's one thing that I'm doing to support you that's working (so I know specifically what's helpful and should continue with).
What Might Be Next: Going forward what's one thing I can do to work better with you or to support you even more?

10 Minute Conversation

1. What is something positive, achieved, solved, etc. that you want to highlight?

2. What might be one area for development, coaching, learning a new skill etc.?

STEP 1
Manager Asks

1. What's one thing I'm doing well that I should continue with?

2. What's one thing I could do to be even more effective?

STEP 2
Employee Asks

What's one thing I'm doing to support you that's working?

What's one way I could work better with you?

STEP 3
Manager Asks